Elisandro Cabada is the Engineering and Innovation Librarian at the UMN Libraries. Based out of Walter Library, Elisandro is the subject liaison to the Computer Science and Electrical and Computer Engineering Departments. Elisandro specialized in data curation while attending the iSchool at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, where he completed his BA and MLIS degrees. While at Illinois, Elisandro worked at the Grainger Engineering Library, which served the College of Engineering.